1. Notification of Receipt: The NWIHA will send a reply to all applicants when an application has been received. The notification will not provide any information as to whether the application is complete or not since it is up to the Applicant to make this determination prior to submission. Applicants are advised to contact the NWIHA if a Notification has not been received within ten days after submission.
2. Missing, Unreadable, or Incomplete Documents: Applicants will not be contacted if the Application received has missing, unreadable, or otherwise unacceptable documentation, such as unsigned and/or undated letters. An important criterion for granting scholarship awards is the responsiveness of the Applicant as demonstrated by the completeness and accuracy of the Application Form and the submission of the required documentation.
3. Award Notification: All applicants, successful or not, will be notified via email of the NWIHA Executive Committee decision. Scholarship awards will also be announced at the Spring Meeting May 7, 2024.
4. Successful Applications: Following the application deadline, successful applicants will be required to provide the name and address of the school where the funds are to be sent, as well as the name and email address of the Financial Aid office. Eligible educational institutions shall include accredited universities, graduate schools, community colleges, and trade schools. Award Payments (estimated at $1,000 depending on funds available and number of successful applicants) will be made directly to the school, not to the Applicant or their family. Unpaid awards will expire on December 31, 2024.
5. All Applications become the property of NWIHA and NWIHA reserves the right to publish essays and the names of the awardees on its website.
